

SURF INTERNET ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Introduction

As a subscriber to the Service, as defined in Surf Internet Terms of Service, you are responsible not only for your own compliance with this Service but also for the compliance of any other individual with access to your Service account (friend, family member, relative, employee, etc.) You remain solely and fully responsible for the content of any material posted, hosted, downloaded/uploaded, created, accessed or transmitted using your Service account. As such, you should take appropriate steps to limit access to your Service account and inform any authorized user of the terms of this policy. You are responsible for ensuring and maintaining security of your systems and the machines that connect to and use the Service, including implementation of necessary patches and operating system updates. You are also solely and fully responsible for the security of all usernames and passwords provided by Surf Internet to you and for any and all actions taken using them. By using the Service, you agree to comply with this Acceptable Use Policy (AUP). Surf Internet reserves the right to change or modify the terms of this AUP at any time, effective when posted on Surf Internet's web site at www.surfinternet.com. Your use of the Service after changes to the AUP are posted shall constitute acceptance of any changes or additional terms.

Interfere with the computer networking or telecommunications service to any other user with or without intent to cause such interference. (DoS, crashing hosts etc.)

Violation of the Acceptable Use Policy

Violation of this Policy may result in the immediate suspension or termination of your service, with or without notice. If a violation of this policy appears to be in violation of law or creates a negative impact on the operation of the network, termination or suspension may occur without previous notice to you.

Surf Internet has no obligation, but may at any time monitor bandwidth, usage and content in response to alleged violations or in order to enforce this policy. However, Surf Internet may monitor content or its Service as necessary to comply with applicable laws, regulations or other governmental or judicial requests, or to protect the Surf Internet network and its customers. You expressly authorize Surf Internet to cooperate with law enforcement authorities and/or system administrators of other internet service providers to enforce this policy.

Surf Internet will make reasonable efforts to provide you with notice (but may not provide notice) of violations of this AUP before termination or suspension of service.

Surf Internet reserves the right, however, to act immediately and without notice to suspend or terminate affected Service in response to a court order or government notice that certain conduct must be stopped or when Surf Internet reasonably determines, that the conduct may: (1) expose Surf Internet to sanctions, prosecution, civil action or any other liability, (2) cause harm to or interfere with the integrity or normal operations of Surf Internet network or networks with which Surf Internet is interconnected, (3) interfere with another Surf Internet customer's use of Services or the Internet (4) violate any applicable law, rule or regulation, or (5) otherwise present an imminent risk of harm to Surf Internet or Surf Internet customers.

Surf Internet in its sole discretion may determine if any behavior is a violation of this AUP and may take appropriate action including termination of service and deleting related files on any Surf Internet servers.

Any failure by Surf Internet to enforce this policy, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as waiver of any rights to do so at any time. Neither the course of conduct between the parties nor trade practice will act to modify any provision in this AUP. You agree that if any portion of this policy is held as invalid or unenforceable, that the remaining portions of the policy will remain in full force and effect. You agree to indemnify Surf Internet against all claims and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) resulting from any violation of this Policy. Surf Internet may assign its rights and duties under these terms to any party at any time without notice to you.
