Surf Internet Partners with Cherry Creek Goshen to Build a Connected Community

Goshen's new 160-acre development will feature high-speed fiber internet and seamless Wi-Fi in public spaces.

GOSHEN, Ind. (December 19, 2024) — Surf Internet[®] has been named the exclusive internet service provider for Cherry Creek, a 160-acre lifestyle development currently under construction in Goshen, Indiana. Expected to welcome its first residents in 2025, Cherry Creek will feature high-speed fiber-optic internet with packages offering connectivity up to 8 Gig. The infrastructure will provide reliable connectivity to homes, businesses, and public spaces across the community.

Surf Internet will install a fiber-optic network throughout Cherry Creek, including pre-installed connections in all homes and businesses as construction progresses. Community-wide Wi-Fi will also be available in public spaces, enabling residents to stay connected while working, learning, or enjoying recreational activities.

“As someone who lives in the area, I know how important reliable internet is to our communities,” said Gene Crusie, CEO of Surf Internet. “Cherry Creek represents the future of modern living, and we’re excited to support this vision by delivering reliable internet that enhances everyday life for its residents.”

Cherry Creek is designed to be a walkable community with amenities like retail stores, recreational facilities, and over three miles of walking and biking trails. The development’s focus on accessibility and connectivity is complemented by Surf’s high-speed internet services, tailored to support the needs of residents and businesses alike.

“Our vision for Cherry Creek is to combine thoughtful design, modern amenities, and seamless connectivity into a community that residents are proud to call home,” said Tonya Detweiler, President & CEO of Cherry Creek. “Surf shares our commitment to enhancing quality of life, and their reliable, high-speed internet will play a vital role in making Cherry Creek a great place to live and thrive.”

Surf Internet, headquartered in Elkhart, Indiana, serves over 600 communities across the Great Lakes region and will celebrate its 25th anniversary next year. The company offers fiber-optic internet with equal upload and download speeds, transparent pricing through its Price-Lock for Life guarantee, and no-contract service plans.
